President's Corner

It has been an exciting year with lots of changes yet to be seen in our horizon. If you noticed the website is down or not correct that will change soon. Roxanne McNemey has been hired to update our website and change our server. The website will belong to FACSE and the past president will be responsible for the update of the website. We are thrilled with this change. So, keep watching for the FACSE website at the same address, we should have it online soon. Another change, WA-FACSE/WAFCS Fall Conference will have online registration through THRIVA. WA-ACTE summer conference held in Yakima, August 12-15, 2007 will be more hands-on this year with workshops that will be beneficial to you in your classroom. Please bring lesson plans that you would like to incorporate math and science to into. If you can bring your best lesson plans to share in two ways: a CD or Flash drive. Lesson plans will be shared at round table and a disc will be made for you to take and use in your classroom. We are planning a conference that will be valuable to you as an educator, and FCCLA adviser. You can also learn more about how to join the FACS leadership team, and hear first hand what is happening at the state level. FACSE registration for pre-conferences and meals will be on the website, sent to paid FACSE members and through your CTE director. FACSE board encourages you to join us this year.

The FACSE board meeting during WA-ACTE conference will have a fashion show for professional dress; the members will vote on the constitution; whether to have a new treasurer-elect position and other issues of interest to the membership.

The FACSE Executive Board has worked hard for you all year and continue to work to ensure you have the updates you need to be a successful teacher, professional, and adviser. They have given of their time and energy so if you see any let them know how much they are appreciated. Their only reward is being told if they have been successful this year by your comments. Have a great summer!
