Calling all Award Nominees...

All of us have been impacted by someone in the teaching profession. Many of us are where we are today because of this impact. Take a moment to think about the amazing people in our professional lives that continue to have an impact on us as educators and on the students we teach for.

The 2006 Awards nomination deadline Thursday June 1st is fast approaching. We have many deserving individuals within and supporting our profession who deserve to be honored. Do not continue making excuses for yourself as to why you don't nominate...we all do things in our classrooms everyday that are exemplary and make a lasting impact on students.

Nominating is EASY! You simply go to www.wafacse.org select Forms, Awards, and download the appropriate application. It is that easy! Then send your completed packets to Erika Hanson, Tahoma High School 18200 SE 240th St. Covington WA, 98042 by the JUNE 1st DEADLINE.

There are a number of areas of focus where you can nominate. As you read think of individuals that you know who fall into these categories and NOMINATE!

Nancy Johnson Outstanding New Professional Teacher Award:

This award is designated for those individuals who have been teaching between 3 and 5 years and have been an active ACTE member for 3 years. These men and woman have not only survived but have conquered their novice years of teaching.

G.R.A.D.S (Graduation, Reality and Dual-Role Skills) Teacher of the Year: The GRADS award was developed in order to recognize the effort and dedication given by our GRADS teachers to teen parents and their children.

Outstanding FCCLA Advisor:

This award is given to an advisor who significantly contributes to the leadership development and growth of their students. We have outstanding FCCLA chapters in our state that can be attributed to their adult leadership.

Outstanding Service to Family and Consumer Sciences Education:

The purpose of the Outstanding Service to Family and Consumer Sciences Education award is to give recognition to individuals who, by their involvement in local schools, and communities have made a significant contribution to Family and Consumer Sciences.

Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher of the Year:

This award is reserved for that all around exemplary FCS teacher. An individual who performs a daily balancing act giving all of themselves to their profession, families, and community.

Outstanding Legislator of the Year:

This past year a new award was introduced to FCS at the state level. This award is meant to acknowledge the legislators in our districts who go above and beyond in supporting our programs.

We are an outstanding group of professionals. Look to your colleagues and see this year's award winners and take the time to nominate and honor them. For more information on any of these awards please consult our organization website or contact:

We look forward to seeing all of you at the Awards banquet this summer.
